Ghana Territory

Territorial Leaders:

Colonel Seth Appeateng - Territorial Commander

Colonel Janet Appeateng - Territorial President for Women's Ministries

Lieut-Colonel Simon Mbuthu - Chief Secretary

Lieut-Colonel Zipporah Mbuthu - Territorial Secretary for Women's Ministries

Prayer Request:

Please pray for:

- Good governance to affect good leadership decisions.
- Self-reliance vision to be embraced by all stakeholders in the Salvation Army - the youth, local officers, board of directors, adherents and soldiers. To adventure into income-generating ventures like setting up Salvation Army printing press and investments at corps/divisional levels.
- Raising businessmen to sponsor/support all business activities in the territories.
- Embark on intentional disciple-making and church planting activities. Through evangelism week, seminars and training, setting dates to send the trained out and declaring mission fields for church planting.
- A successful Women's Congress in West Africa. Please pray for good organisation and participation, travelling mercies and good content.
- Capacity-building for officers in related fields that will promote and grow the church spiritually, numerically, academically and financially.
- Protection and documentations of all Salvation Army landed properties/ lands etc
- Ability to execute and implement the strategic goals set for sustainability of the Army in Ghana.
